We thank our customers for their cooperation during that time.

Respectfully submitted,

 FRED SOMERO,
 WALTER S. THAYER,

SUPERINTENDENT'S REPORT

To the School Board and Citizens of New Ipswich:

I respectfully submit my sixteenth annual report as Superintendent of Schools:

Supervision

In my report of last year, I stated that we were giving special attention to Primary Reading and discussed the first two of the five stages in learning to read; namely, (1) the preparatory stage in which the teacher builds upon the experiences the children have had in the home and community and the background of ideas and the conversational ability they possess and (2) the three phases of the second stage, pre-primer, primer and first reader. These two stages are normally completed in the first grade. This year we are extending this emphasis on reading through the second grade and attempting to take each child at the level of reading ability which he has attained, and carry him on at his own best rate of progress.

The third stage in learning to read is a period of rapid growth in the fundamental habits of recognition of words and phrases and in the easy interpretation of meanings. This stage normally covers two years work,—that is, grades two and three. However, there are always found in the second grade some pupils who have not progressed farther than the first reader level, or even the primer level, at the beginning of the year; consequently any group of second grade children must be broken up into two or three sections corresponding to these levels of attainment.

In both the first and second grades we now report in considerable detail the progress each child is making in reading, in order that the parent may have a more complete picture of the child's abilities and handicaps and be in a position to discuss special problems with the teacher and cooperate with her in overcoming difficulties.

In grades above the second, the teachers are making special efforts to help pupils with their reading difficulties, first by determining as far as possible the cause of their handicaps, and second by applying appropriate remedial measures through individual or group instruction and drill. Many of the factors that determine a child's success and rate of advancement in the primary grade reading still affect his progress in the later grades. The factors which are most important are those related to general health and emotional status.

Low general health is likely to retard progress in reading, prevent good memory, and even produce a dislike for reading because the effort required produces discomfort. Evidences of low general health, such as poor color, lack of energy, nervousness, restlessness, irritableness, getting tired easily, sagging posture, etc., must be remedied, if the child is to have a fair chance at learning, whether it be in the primary grades or at a later period in the child's school experience. Normal hearing and vision are also essential to success and we try to discover as early as possible any indication that a child does not hear distinctly and see readily and without eye strain. This is one of the important functions of the medical inspection and much good is accomplished by the nurse and school physician as well as by the family physician in discovering and correcting these physical handicaps.

A child's emotional stability plays a very important part in his success in learning. One who is still handicapped by habits of infancy, or by shyness, embarrassment and fears, or who gives way to temper tantrums, or for any reason is tense or strained, is very likely to lose confidence in himself and develop the attitude that he cannot read; his attention wanders, poor habits of perception develop, and the result is dislike for reading and for school.

Early discovery and intelligent treatment of the factors which prevent a child from making normal progress in learning to read, is the ideal which we are striving to attain. The success we achieve in this determines the success the pupil will have, and any failure of teachers or parents in this respect reduces the pupil's chance of success.

Medical Inspection Report

The annual medical inspection was made in October by Dr. Cayward and Mrs. Gilbert. They report having found the following list of defects:

	Defects	Corrected or under treatment since last examination
10 % Underweight	40	5
Defective Vision	6	0
Cardiac Disease	2	0
Pulmonary Disease	1	1
Defective Teeth	61	33
Tonsils	21	13
Adenoids	21	13
Speech Defect	1	0

Mrs. Gilbert has given approximately 35 hours service during the five months from September 1 to date, and in addition to the medical inspection reported above has weighed and measured all of the pupils, a total of 106, and made 19 home visits.

She has found 27 pupils without defects. Two pupils were taken to a Chest Clinic in December for further examination and found to be without defect. The tonsil and adenoid corrections were made at a clinic held last spring.

Consolidated School

The new school building now in process of construction will be ready for use in September. This will permit the closing of the one remaining rural school and a complete consolidation for all the pupils in grades one to six. With two grades in each room we shall have a greatly improved organization and the new plant will provide modern facilities in heating and ventilation, running water for drinking purposes as well as flush toilets, provision for noon lunch, and a large play room in the basement for use in inclement weather.

Budget

The items included under the heading "Support of Schools" show an increase over last year's estimates in the following items. For text books $125 is not adequate and the estimate has been increased to $150. There is one pupil attending the Greenville public school at a cost of $28.50; this was not anticipated in last year's budget and we have no assurance whether there will be one or more such pupils next year. It is rather difficult to estimate the cost of maintenance of the new building. We do anticipate however that janitor service will cost more, also fuel and light, and that we shall need additional playground supplies. The total increase in all these items is approximately $240 and much of this will be covered by increased state aid allowance. Under "Statutory Requirements" we anticipate an increase of probably five pupils in attendance at the Academy, requiring some $400 additional money for tuition. The item Insurance and Other Fixed Charges includes $50 for insurance on the new building; this building is the property of the School District rather than the town, so the insurance should be included in the school budget.

The estimate for New Equipment has been increased by $100 in anticipation of replacement of some old equipment when the new building is occupied.

The new building construction has been financed by a PWA grant of 45%, which will not have to be paid back to the Federal government, and the balance was raised in accordance with the vote of the District by serial notes in the amount of $12,900 at 2½% interest, to be paid off at the rate of $1000 each year. Consequently there must be added to the usual budget items for the coming year $1000 for payment of debt and $322.50 for payment of interest on the debt.

The increase in the budget estimates, aside from debt and interest, is approximately $800. At the same time there is a decrease in the allotment of state aid because of the closing of the High Bridge School. The amount required to be assessed is $1500 more than last year for the regular budget, plus the debt and interest charges, making necessary a total assessment of $14,322.50.

Respectfully submitted,

VERNON S. AMES,

Superintendent.

REPORT OF THE SCHOOL BOARD

To the Citizens of New Ipswich:

For several years it has been the hope of your School Board that a building might be erected which would accommodate all the grade children, thereby giving equal opportunities to all pupils.

The year 1938 will always stand out as the year when the Consolidated School was begun. At the annual Town Meeting last March, the following were appointed to serve as members of the Building Committee in conjunction with the School Board, Mrs. Helen Thayer, Mr. Hjalmar Maki, and Mr. Robert Tuttle. Mr. Maki was unanimously elected chairman and in the name of the committee we extend to him our most sincere thanks for the untiring and most efficient service he has so freely given.

The number of children in the Highbridge School was so few last year that the board decided to close it and the pupils are now being transported to Number One.

Miss Elizabeth Helstein of Number Six was married last June and Miss Dorothea Ryans, a graduate of Keene Normal School, was elected as her successor.

The schools were in session every school day last year, owing to the fairly mild winter, the well cared for roads, and the absence of contagious diseases.

The School Board extends its sincere thanks to the Librarian, Mrs. Mabel Livingstone, who has co-operated so generously with the teachers, and to the Parent-Teacher Association, which organization ever since its inception has worked for the good of our schools.

Respectfully submitted,
 MABEL M. ALDRICH,
 MATTI P. AHO,
 JENNIE G. PATTERSON,
 School Board.
